Your bulbs have always been top quality and the blooms from my bulbs from you last year were beautiful—one bulb produced 3 blooms!

Your bulbs make gardening a pleasure and in addition give beautiful cut flowers.

MRS. A. N. McKINNEY.

Toledo 6, Ohio.

Would like to tell you how pleased I am with the bulbs I ordered last fall. The Jonquils, Daffodils, and Hyacinths have just been gorgeous. The Tulips are just beginning to bloom. Have never seen anything to equal the size and beauty of one in particular—a Peony Tulip I believe. It is simply huge and a beautiful red and gold mixture. Do hope you will send me your catalog for fall orders, as I certainly want to order more for another year.

Sincerely,

MRS. TOBY A. HILL.

Dear Sirs: The bulbs received from you last year proved to be very satisfactory. My garden this spring was a show place of the neighborhood. The Daffodils and Tulips were unusual and just at the present time all are enjoying the Regale and Estate Lilies.

It has been a pleasure to recommend your name to many of my friends. Yours truly,

HENRIETTA MUIR.

Gentlemen: With this third yearly order, I want to express my appreciation of your fine bulbs. My large collection of Daffodils gives me breath-taking beauty for over a month and certainly represents the best investment I ever made in garden loveliness. The prospects for ample bloom on the Estate Lilies is equally impressive. Rest assured that I shall continue to be your grateful customer for years to come!

Very sincerely yours,
(Miss) L. RUTH KIMBALL.

Gentlemen: Just a line to thank you for the wonderful Tulip bulbs you sent me last fall.

The Fantasy, Black Parrot bulbs were great but the Therese was the show Tulip in this neighborhood. I invited many of my friends to see this fine Tulip which was over 6 inches across. They wanted to know where I got such wonderful bulbs and I gave them your address.

Yours very truly,

FRANK E. HAGAN.

Kansas City 1, Mo.,
May 7, 1953.

Dear Sirs: Please send me a copy of your latest catalog, and I will send you an order for bulbs such as only Van Bourgondien Brothers are capable of producing. It has been several years since I have had an order from you, but I have not forgotten what strong healthy bulbs come from your place. When my friends see my Tulip beds they really say such lovely flowers are just out of this world. Tulips, Jonquils and Hyacinths which I bought from you 7 years ago are still healthy and blooming profusely every season. They have been divided and reset, and each year they are more beautiful than ever. Where can man get closer to God than in a flower garden? Yours very truly,

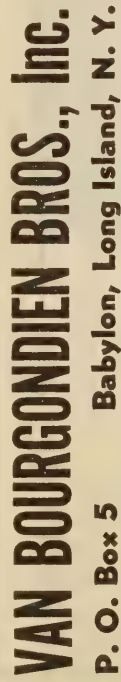

MRS. REBECCA REAVICK.

Troy, Ohio.

Also I would like to tell you how pleased I am with the Tulip bulbs I ordered from you last fall. They are simply beautiful! I never dreamed I could grow Tulips as large and gorgeous as they have all turned out to be. One Parrot actually measures 7 inches across the diameter. I have a large bouquet here on my desk at work. Wish you could be here to receive the compliments too. They are certainly doing a good job of advertising for you and I have given your address to a number of people here at work. Everyone wants to know where I got the bulbs.

Many thanks again for your fine service and good quality merchandise. Yours very truly,

MRS. JOHN P. ADAMS.

DUKE OF WINDSOR. (New.) Magnificent, heavy, thick, pure white, overlapping petals with pale yellow cup very flaring and short, beautifully ruffled. DICK WELLBAND. (Incomparabilis.) Very strong and exceptionally free-flowering. The perianth is pure white and the cup flame-orange. One of its most remarkable qualities is that the color does not fade but rather intensifies with age. Its great beauty lies in the startling contrast between petals and cup which makes it stand out in the largest collection of Daffodils. 3 for 50c; $1.60 per doz.; $12.00 per 100.

FEBRUARY GOLD. (Triandrus.) Narrow, orange-yellow trumpet, with tiny orange edge. 3 for 60c; $1.90 per doz.; $14.00 per 100.
